Home & Office

Ferguson Lane offers another in-city retreat.

Events

New venues are always sprouting in this big city. Shile Boutique Lifestyle Center and Red Town have both recently opened while another cultural street with restaurants, bars and offices is set to officially open during these next few weeks. Will you soon be skipping down Ferguson Lane?

Through Monday, July 9

> 300% Spanish Design

Shanghai Art Museum

A wide variety of designers and styles are displayed with works designed or influenced by the greatest Spanish artists of the 20th century. The exhibition is composed of 300 special exhibits—100 chairs, 100 lamps and 100 engravings, showcasing some of the most extraordinary and significant contributions made to the world's design culture.

Ongoing

> 2007 Summer Collection

Vervia

This Taikang Lu shop, known for its artful interiors and fancy knick-knacks with a penchant for the unusual, has launched its Summer 2007 collection which includes the NOCHE range of QBIT cubes (Vervia's own rubic's cube of soft furniture) and colorful dinnerware. Vervia's own Iris Hreinsdottir has created a new range of sleek picnic baskets for those fun meals in the sun. www.vervia-house.com

> Grand Opening

Ferguson Lane

Another Xintiandi? Even before its grand opening, this lane's historical background has already attracted much attention. Ferguson Lane is maturing with offices, a spa, a café, restaurants and bars. Located in Xuhui, Ferguson Lane consists of five French-style buildings, all designed and decorated gracefully and elegantly. 374 / 376 Wukang Lu
